the Republican, Mr. Dunn worked at different times on every newspaper in this city.

Mr. Dunn was formerly foreman of the proofraders on the Congressional Record at the Government Printing Office. He also was foreman of the proofrooms on the Post and The Washington Herald. When the latter newspaper was organized Mr. Dunn associated himself with it, and retained his position until his death. He was stricken with paralysis in April last.

As a member of Columbia Typographical Union, No. 191, Mr. Dunn was prominent. He held several offices in the union, and represented that body at the International Convention at Ruffalo.

Mr. Dunn was married on June II, 1988, to Miss Katherine Giddens, of this city. She died nineteen years ago. Only during a few years of his married life did Mr. Dunn live away from the Southwest. where he was born and spent nearly all of his life among a host of friends.

Instruction Officers.

It is expected that the War Department this week will designate the military instruction officers who are to go into camp with the District National Guard at Harpers Perrs. W. Va., for two weeks, beginning August 14. The detail of regular army officers to the encampment will probably be somewhat smaller than that of last year. Detailed orders concerning the camp will not be issued until after the War Department has announced the instructors.
